

A tribute to fathers . . . and their wonderful leadership message for all of us!

He didn't tell me how to live; he lived and watched me do it. - Clarence Kelland

My father gave me the greatest gift anyone could give another person. He believed in me. - Jim Valvano

The quality of a father can be seen in the goals, dreams, and aspirations he sets not only for himself but for his family. - Johann Schiller

The quotes shared today are a wonderful example of the heart, soul, and modeled behaviors that all great fathers exhibit as they lead their children and families. Let's take time to reflect upon these messages as we honor our fathers and/or father figures on Father's Day.

Thanks, dads, for your love and leadership! May we use your example as we work, lead our own families, and contribute in our communities.

Happy Father's Day!
